Class Central
https://www.class-central.com
Class Central is an aggregator that collects information and links to free online classes from a variety of colleges. Learn about anything from pre-calculus to data visualization. Free registration is required.

Coursera
https://www.coursera.org
Coursera provides challenging, college-level classes on diverse topics such as finance, social psychology, and cryptography. Free registration is required.

EdX
http://www.edx.org
EdX is a nonprofit organization that partners with colleges like the University of Arizona and Harvard University to provide free online classes and other resources to the public. Many classes are self-led and available 24 hours a day. Courses include English grammar, problem solving technology, and waste water treatment engineering, to name just a few. Free registration is required.

Khan Academy
https://www.khanacademy.org
Khan Academy is a free online education service that offers courses in a variety of subjects for all age levels. Young students can take math and humanities courses to build skills needed for the classroom, while older students and adults can take advanced courses on everything from test preparation to computer programming. Free registration is required.

Open Culture
http://www.openculture.com/freeonlinecourses
Open Culture provides access to free audio and video courses from a variety of sources. Users can listen to lectures, watch selected movies and presentations, or read free e-books from this site. Registration is not required.