Put Your Chili to the Test at Franklin Public Library's Chili Cook-Off

FRANKLIN, WI – Do you think your chili is the best in town? Have a secret recipe you refuse to share? Well, here's your chance to put your chili to the test at Franklin Public Library's Chili Cook-Off, January 27th from 5:30 to 7:30pm! Participation and tastings are completely free and open to the general public, no residency required. The Ultimate Chili Champion will be determined by public vote and announced at the event.

To submit your chili for judgement, register in-person or call the Franklin Public Library and indicate in which age category you would like to compete: 3-6 grade, 7-12 grade, Family, or Adult. There is no deadline to register. The winners of each category will win a gift card to a local restaurant!

Not bringing chili? That's okay! Come sample and vote for your favorite entries while enjoying crafts, board games, and video games.

For complete Chili Cook-off rules, visit the Events page of the Franklin Public Library website at www.franklinpubliclibrary.org. For more information about the Chili Cook-Off, contact Teen Librarian Keri Whitmore at (414)427-7642 or Keri.Miller@mcfls.org.
