Get in the Halloween Spirit with Franklin Public Library's Monster Movie Marathon

FRANKLIN, WI – Can't get enough of Halloween? Enjoy a whole month of screams at Franklin Public Library's Classic Monster Movie Marathon. Every Wednesday at 6:30pm in October one of Hollywood's most beloved (and terrifying) monsters will appear on the screen in the Fadrow Room. The format is drive-in style, so bring a blanket and some snacks and join us if you dare for a frightening good scare!

October 5: Frankenstein (1931). An obsessed scientist, Henry Frankenstein, assembles a living being from parts of exhumed corpses. Little does he know that he gave the monster a murderer's brain!

October 12: Dracula (1931). An estate agent travels to Transylvania to complete a transaction with Count Dracula, a vampire. Soon, he becomes his unwilling servant and they travel to England, where Dracula spreads his curse. It's left to Professor Van Helsing to stop the spread of his evil.

October 19: King Kong (1933). A film crew goes to a tropical island for an exotic location shoot and discovers a colossal giant gorilla who takes a shine to their female blonde star.

October 26: The Wolf Man (1941). A practical man returns to his homeland, is attacked by a creature of folklore, and infected with a horrific disease his disciplined mind tells him cannot possibly exist...

All movies are free and open to the public. No registration is required. For more information, contact the Information Desk at (414) 425-8214 or visit the library at 9151 W Loomis Road.
