Get Creative with Franklin Public Library's Pumpkin Decorating Contest

FRANKLIN, WI – Grab a pumpkin and participate in Franklin Public Library's book-themed pumpkin decorating contest! Participation is open to all ages, and prizes will be awarded for first, second, and third places. Pumpkins should be decorated as a book character with craft materials (carved pumpkins cannot be accepted) and can be any size, real or artificial.

To register yourself, your child, or a team, submit a registration form (available at the Children's Desk) in person to any of the library's Children's Librarians with your decorated pumpkin between October 19 and 21. Pumpkins will be on display for public voting from October 22 to October 27. First, second, and third place winners will be announced October 28.

This contest is open to the general public (a Franklin Public Library card is not necessary) and free for participation. For more information, contact the Children's Desk at (414) 425-6241 or 9151 W Loomis Road.
